Presence of Troops Assured.

The gratifying announcement was defi-Regiment had been ordered from Camp Meade to Washington, and would arrive here, over 800 strong, at 11 o'clock emerrow morning.

In answer to an inquiry of Secretary Alger, Colonel Pettit, commanding the regiment, telegraphed to the department that the regiment was fully prepared to come to Washington tomorrow, or any other day de-sired by the department. He stated the strength of the regiment at forty-two of-ficers and 700 men. Instructions were ac-cordingly sent to him to make the trip, leaving Camp Meade, near Middletown, in time to arrive in Washington tomorrow morning. Secretary Alger has arranged to give the entire regiment a dinner at the National Hotel tomorrow afternoon, and has also authorized it to remain here until after the close of the exhibition of fireworks at the monument grounds, tomorrow evening, when officers and men are to board the train and return to Camp Meade.

The batteries stationed at Fort Washingon and Sheridan Point have also been or dered to the capital, as well as two squadrons of cavalry from Augusta, Georgia, and The celebration will be inaugurated tomorrow with a national salute at 7 o'clock from the Dolphin, the Washington bar-racks and Fort Myer, the merry ringing of chimes and church bells and the tooting of every steam whistle in the District. The crowds of visitors will have the morning ours to devote to seeing the many places of interest in the city, and will doubtless avail themselves of the opportunity. A salute to the Union of forty-five guns will be fired at noon from the Dolphin, the bar-racks and Fort Myer, and bells and steam whistles will carry an accompaniment. Military and Naval Parade.
